- S. M. Rosenbaum.
  4. An account of the real estate of the late firm of S. M. A. M. Rosenbaum, in which the said S. M. Rosenbaum had an interest at the time of his death.
  In taking these accounts I am directed to describe each piece of the real estate with reasonable accuracy, and to ascertain as near as possible the present cash value thereof.
- reasonable accuracy, and to ascertain as near as possible the present cash value thereof.

  I am further directed to inquire and report who are the beins at law of the said S. M. Rosenbaum, deceased, and who are his distributees. And further, to inquire and report who are now entitled to share in the partition of his personal estate which may remain after the payment of his debts.

  And I am directed further to inquire and report whether the real estate of the late firm of S. M. & M. Rosenbaum can be conveniently divided in kind between the heirs at law of S. M. Rosenbaum, deceased, and Michael Rosenbaum, the surviving partner; and further, to inquire and report as to the real estate within the State of Viginia owned in severalty by S. M. Rosenbaum at the time of his death whereof he died seized and possessed; whether it can be divided and partitioned conveniently among those entitled thereto, and if such partition cannot be conveniently made, I am directed to enquire and report whether the entire subject may be allotted to any party who will accept it and pay therefor to the other parties such sums of money as

The Custom House Plans.

The plans of the custom-house are not to be returned to Washington as some people seem to think. There are errors in them, but such as can be corrected here. The building will be in the shape of the letter 1. On Bank street an addition of 88 feet by 33 feet to the pre-sent height will be made; on Main street there will be a wing on each side Dunlop showed much familiarity with the evidence, marked earnestness and honesty in the belief that Mr. Finch is entitled to the seat, and great eloquence and ability in presenting his side of the case. He was roused to the finest display of his capacity as a speaker, and his readiness in repartee and argument by questions addressed to him by Mr. Waddill. At this point of his argument was displayed by the special displayed by the speaker and his readiness in repartee and argument by questions addressed to him by Mr. Waddill.
